

AUDITION INFORMATION FOR "A CHRISTMAS CAROL"

The Waupaca Community Theatre is announcing auditions for Charles Dickens' classic holiday play, "A Christmas Carol" on October 3rd from 9:00-5:00 in the lower level of the Holly History and Genealogy Center on Main Street in downtown Waupaca. Cast members of all ages are needed. Although no singing is necessary for the audition, the play does require a small group of carolers so those who like to sing are encouraged to audition. The play will be directed by Barbara Laedtke and presented as dinner theater at the Gerold Opera House in Weyauwega on December 10, 11, 12 and 13. Rehearsals will begin in mid-October at the Holly History and Genealogy Center and take place Friday evenings and varying Sunday afternoon times. The Waupaca Community Theatre is a branch of the Waupaca Fine Arts Festival. For more information visit www.fineartsfestival.org.

A sample script and cast list can be found here:
<https://nc-chap.org/dickens/Ferians%20script.pdf>